

CASSANDRA MARIA

BROADCASTER • PRESENTER • EVENT HOST • CONTENT CREATOR

THE ELEVATOR PITCH

I'm Cassandra Maria — a broadcaster, event host, and content creator with a decade in digital media, currently managing programming at Premier Gospel Radio.

I've worked with partners like Disney+, the BBC, and the British Army, but what actually makes me tick is people — I connect brands with audiences through genuine humour and real conversation, not just polished delivery.

The topics I love digging into are social justice, health and wellbeing — physical and mental — faith, and anything comedy-related, because laughter is good for the soul. That mix is what makes the connection feel real rather than scripted.

So if you're looking for genuine connection paired with excellence and professionalism, I'm your gal.
